

Not By Chance Or Happenstance

Into our lives come many things
To break the dull routine—
The things we had not planned
Or that happen unforeseen—
The sudden, unplanned meeting that
Comes with sweet surprise
And lights the heart with happiness
Like a rainbow in the skies.
Now some folks call it fickle fate
And some folks call it chance,
While others just accept it
As a pleasant happenstance.
But no matter what you call it,
It didn't come without design,
For all our lives are fashioned
By the hand that is divine
And every lucky happening and every lucky break
Are little gifts from God above
That are ours to freely take.

Asian Aid Fundraiser to Honour Phil Page

As most of you know, my brother-in-law Phil Page, lost his battle with cancer a few weeks ago.

My youngest sister, Sheree Ashton, decided she would like to organize a HEAD SHAVE Fundraiser for Phil's favourite charity – Asian Aid – to honour his life.

So next Friday night, May 30th @ 7.30pm at College Church, Sheree and her son, Phil's son – Josh, Brendan and some other friends, are shaving their heads.

There are flyers in the foyer if you would like to donate, or you can go online at: www.asianaid.org.au/headshave

If you would like to come and show your support that would be awesome too!

I would also like to personally thank everyone who has shown their love, support and prayers to my family and to Neroli and her family at this time.

This is when you realize how wonderful it is to be part of a special church family like Charlestown.

Thank you everyone.
